Date: 23-10-2025

As per the directions of the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor and the deliberations held with the Dean, Research and Development, the Research and Development Cell (RDC) has formulated the rules and guidelines for conducting the University-Level Competition for ANVESHAN, in alignment with the guidelines issued by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU).

Rules and Guidelines for University-Level - ANVESHAN Competition

1. Each team may consist of 1 to 4 students currently enrolled in full-time programs of the university (as per AIU guidelines) and a student can be a member of only one team.
2. Teams may be individual or collaborative, and interdisciplinary teams are encouraged and a team must nominate one designated Team Leader.
3. All participating teams who have already submitted the abstract will be screened in the first round by the RDC Screening Committee to categorize in different Six Tracks of Anveshan
4. Participants must submit original projects based on new/innovative ideas and with requisite exploration and ground-work to demonstrate its feasibility and impact.
5. All the teams will participate in the Poster Presentation round and a Poster (size 1 m ×1 m) summarizing the project must be prepared and displayed as per AIU's prescribed format and earlier guidelines.
6. The Poster shall NOT have any identification mark such as name of the student/presenter, affiliating institutions, names of supervisor/mentors, etc.
7. The poster must clearly mention the problem statement, objective (s), methodology employed, a brief summary of major findings.
8. The selected teams in the poster presentation by the external panel of judges will participate in the oral or podium presentation followed by an interaction session with the evaluation panel.
9. The final selection of teams and projects will be on the basis of both poster and podium presentation in each category and will be finalized by the External evaluation team of judges.
10. The decision of the RDC Internal Selection Committee shall be final and binding.
11. Selected teams will represent the University at the Zonal Level of ANVESHAN organized by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) AIU at Apex Professional University Pasighat, Arunachal Pradesh.
